

THROUGH IT ALL I CHOOSE TO SERVE THE SAVIOR

Lyrics

Words by Randy Vader

Though the future seems uncertain,
Though the fear erodes my peace,
Though the circumstance seems hopeless
And the doubting will not cease;
I will claim what He has promised
For my heart must recognize,
Mine is not to question
But keep focused on the prize.

Through it all I choose to the serve the Savior
Through it all I claim Christ as my friend,
Through it all my faith will never waiver,
'til He calls me home or comes again.

This path now set before me
Is not my route of choice.
Yet I must keep moving forward
Listening to His still small voice.
Each step along this journey
He reminds me I'm His own
And through the cold dark loneliness
I'm aware I'm not alone.

Through it all I choose to the serve the Savior
Through it all I claim Christ as my friend,
Through it all my faith will never waiver,
'til He calls me home or comes again.

Through it all I choose to the serve the Savior
Through it all I claim Christ as my friend,
Through it all my faith will never waiver,
'til He calls me home or comes again.

What a day that will be when my Jesus I will see!
What a day glorious day that will be.

Through it all my faith will never waiver,
'til He calls me home or comes again.
