

2 m or w - An allegory representing a seeker who can't understand why life has become so confusing and filled with regret, and a believer who knows and loves being in the presence of the Father. The believer becomes the mediator of grace as he invites the seeker to cross the bridge that Christ has built.