

3 m 5 w – This present day drama takes place during the Christmas season in the home of Margaret, a grandmother, long since widowed. Margaret's children are estranged. Through the exploration of family relationships we see the faithful restorative heart of the Father.