

I Believe in a Hill Called Mount Calvary

Lyrics

Words by Dale Oldham, Gloria Gaither and William J. Gaither

Music by William J. Gaither

Arranged by Camp Kirkland

There are things as we travel this earth's shifting sands
That transcend all the reason of man;
But the things that matter the most in this world,
They can never be held in our hand.

I believe in a hill called Mount Calvary
I'll believe whatever the cost;
And when time has surrendered and earth is no more,
I'll still cling to that old rugged cross.

I believe that the Christ who was slain on the cross
Has the power to change lives today;
For He changed me completely, a new life is mine,
That is why by the cross I will stay.

I believe in a hill called Mount Calvary
I'll believe whatever the cost;
And when time has surrendered and earth is no more,
I'll still cling to that old rugged cross.

I believe, I believe.

I believe that his life with its great mysteries
Surely someday will come to an end;
But faith will conquer the darkness and death
And will lead me at last to my Friend.

I believe in a hill called Mount Calvary
I'll believe whatever the cost;
And when time has surrendered and earth is no more,
I'll still cling to that old rugged cross.

I believe, I believe in the old rugged cross.
