

FOLLOW THE LIGHT

Lyrics

Words by Randy Vader

Music by Jay Rouse

Wandering and wondering which way to go,
Crossing the desert within my soul.
Seeking direction, seeking what's right,
Listening for angel's songs in the night.
Where will this lead me?

Follow, follow, follow!
The Light that shines through the darkest night.
The Hope that brings vision to our sight.
The dream that leads to the Prince of Peace.
Wherever you are, Ah, follow the Light, the Light.
Follow the Light, the Light.

What can I offer, what can I bring?
What gift is worthy for Heaven's King?
Will He receive me, this great Son of Man?
Will He accept me just as I am?
Where will this lead me?

Follow, follow, follow!
The Light that shines through the darkest night.
The Hope that brings vision to our sight.
The dream that leads to the Prince of Peace.
Wherever you are, Ah, follow the Light.

Never, alone, 'cause I'm on my way home!
Whatever lies ahead, I'll trust what God said and follow!
Just follow the Light that shines through the darkest night.
Just follow the Hope that brings vision to our sight.
Just follow the dream that leads to the Prince of Peace.
Wherever you are, look to the star and follow the Light.
Wherever you are, look to the star and follow the Light.
Just follow the Light wherever He leads you.
Just follow the Light wherever He leads you.
Just follow the Light!
Follow the Light!
