The first system of music consists of two staves. The treble staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. It contains several chords and a melodic line. The bass staff starts with a bass clef and contains a continuous eighth-note pattern. A forte (f) dynamic marking is placed above the bass staff in the second measure.

The second system continues the piece. The treble staff features a melodic line with some slurs and ties. The bass staff has a similar eighth-note pattern. Above the treble staff, the instruction "keep the energy" is written. A forte (f) dynamic marking is present in the fourth measure. There are also some markings that look like "V" or "Vc" in the bass staff.

The third system shows the continuation of the piano accompaniment. The treble staff has chords and a few notes, while the bass staff maintains the eighth-note accompaniment. The key signature remains one flat.

The fourth system features a fermata over a chord in the treble staff towards the end of the system. The bass staff continues with the eighth-note accompaniment. The key signature is still one flat.
